SERIE A

In the 20-team Serie A era (since 2004/05), a side has collected at least 29 points after 11 matchdays, as Lazio have, on only 9 occasions: 5 of them went on to finish top and none finished lower than 5th (Inter 2017/18, with exactly 29 points).

13 points separate the best and the second-best promoted side (Frosinone 20, Monza 7): the widest gap since 1994/95. The previous record was 10 points, set in three different seasons: Chievo and Torino in 2001/02, Atalanta and Vicenza in 2000/01, and Verona and Livorno in 2013/14.

COMO — CAGLIARI

25 official meetings between the two sides in Como: 13 Como wins (most recent 3-1, Serie A 2024/25), 7 draws (most recent 0-0, Serie A 2025/26) and 5 Cagliari wins (most recent 1-3, Serie B 2003/04).

Como unbeaten at home in Serie A since 12 April (Como-Inter 3-4): 4 wins and 2 draws.

Como have kept 5 clean sheets in their last 6 Serie A home games: the only goal conceded in that run came in Como-Parma 2-1 on 14 September.

Cagliari have 5 wins this season: all by a one-goal margin, four of them 1-0 (against Parma, Lecce, Udinese and Frosinone) and one 2-1 (Atalanta).

Cagliari beat Frosinone last time out, ending a run of 4 consecutive Serie A defeats. However, the Sardinians have lost their last 3 away games (Monza, Roma, Lazio), conceding 10 goals.

Como have the second-best defence in Serie A 2026/27 (10 goals conceded, level with Roma): only Lazio have done better (9).

Only Fiorentina (11) complete more dribbles per game than Como (9.5).

Only Parma (9) and Venezia (8) have scored fewer goals than Cagliari (10). Along with Parma, the Sardinians also have the fewest different goalscorers (5).

Cagliari concede the most shots per game in Serie A (18.5).

Cesc Fàbregas and Fabio Pisacane meet for the 3rd time in official matches: in the previous 2, both in 2025/26, the Como coach won one (Cagliari-Como 1-2) and the other was drawn (Como-Cagliari 0-0).

Michel Adopo scored against Frosinone: his 1st league goal this season for the Cagliari midfielder. He had not scored in Serie A since 8 January 2026 (Cremonese-Cagliari 2-2).

COMO

CAGLIARI

Only Gustavo Varela (53%) accounts for a higher share of his team's Serie A goals than Daniel Maldini (50%).

LAZIO

LECCE

25 official meetings between the two sides in Rome: 15 Lazio wins (most recent 2-0, Serie A 2025/26), 8 draws (most recent 2-2, Serie A 2022/23) and 2 Lecce wins (most recent 0-1, Serie A 2024/25).

Lazio have scored in 17 of their 19 Serie A home games against Lecce: the only exceptions were the 0-0 in 1988/89 and the 0-1 in 2024/25.

Lazio top the table with 29 points and are still unbeaten after 11 matchdays: 9 wins and 2 draws (Milan and Napoli).

Lazio unbeaten in their last 12 Serie A matches (across 2025/26 and the current season): 10 wins and 2 draws. Their last defeat came on 17 May (Roma-Lazio 2-0).

Lazio have scored in each of their last 11 official games: the last time they failed to score was Lazio-Mantova 0-2 in the Coppa Italia on 16 August.

Before the draw in Naples, Lazio had scored at least 2 goals in 8 consecutive matchdays, from the 3rd to the 10th.

Lecce winless in their last 4 matches (3 defeats and 1 draw): their last win was the 0-3 in Udine on 18 October.

Two of Lecce's three wins this season have come away from home (Venezia and Udinese).
