"Massimiliano Alvini's Frosinone is certainly one of the most pleasant surprises of this excellent start to the season - said Luigi De Siervo, Chief Executive of Lega Calcio Serie A -. Frosinone, despite being a newly promoted side, are playing well and have managed to get results even against top-flight opponents, thanks to the pressing, high intensity and dynamism that are Alvini's trademark. The manager is making the most of an interesting squad, also because it comprises many young Italian talents who are committed to their manager's philosophy, playing an intense style of football that delivers results whilst also providing entertainment and excitement".
